

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

Antonyms are words that have opposite meanings.

Find the antonyms in each sentence and write them on the line.

1. Walk around the mud instead of through the mud. around, through

2. I am a big kid compared to my little brother. big, little

3. Katie likes to talk, but her sister is quiet. talk, quiet

4. Should I leave the window open, or should I close it? open, close

5. I want you to come to my party, not go to the game. come, go

6. In the morning, we raise the flag, but at night, we lower it. raise, lower

7. Pam lives near me, but Will lives far away. near, far

8. The train went under the bridge as cars drove over it. under, over

9. Mark is tall, but Amy is short. tall, short

10. Do you want the light on or off? on, off