

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

Read each question, and circle the correct answer.

- One Thousands is equal to _____ Hundreds.
A. 1000100
B. 10
 C. None of these
- What do we call the three ways to read, write, and stretch numbers?
A. Place value form
 B. Standard, written, and expanded form
C. The long form
- Emily collected soda cans in her neighborhood this summer. She collected 12,981 soda cans. How should this number be written in expanded form?
 A. $10,000 + 2,000 + 900 + 80 + 1$
B. $12,000 + 900 + 80 + 1$
C. $6,000 + 6,000 + 2,000 + 900 + 80 + 1$
- Given the following digits: 9, 1, 8, 2, 7, construct a five digit number that meets this criteria.
 - The largest digit is in the ones place
 - The smallest digit is in the ten thousands place
 - The number is an odd number
 - The first two digits equal 3 when added together
 - The digit in the hundreds place is the number of legs on an octopus

What is the number?

A. 91,827

B. 12,789

C. 12,879