

Read the comprehension and answer the following questions.

It was a dark night.

A thief was out to loot.

He sat near the root of a tree.

Hear the barn owl hoot!

He climbed up the tree to get at the loot.

He came down the chute, full of soot.

Oh no! One boot was lost in the chute!

The cop ran after the thief.

The cop blew his whistle: toot – toot, toot – toot!

The boot and loot all lost, the thief was now in the cop's loop.

Circle the correct answer.

Q. Who is out to loot, in the story?

A cop

A thief

Q. Where did the thief sit?

Near the police station

Near the root of a tree