

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: _____ : _____ - _____ : _____

Read each question, and circle the correct answer.

1. Which answer shows 98,023 correctly written in words?

- A. Ninety-eight thousand twenty-three
- B. Ninety eight thousand and twenty-three
- C. Ninety-eight thousand and twenty three

2. Emily spelled the number 5,234 incorrectly on her math spelling test. Here is what she spelled: Five thousand and two hundred thirty-four. What should Emily do to correct her mistake?

- A. She should insert a hyphen (-) between the words five and thousand.
- B. She should delete the word and because in math this word refers to a decimal point
- C. She should delete the hyphen (-) between the words thirty and four.

3. Emily and Stewart collected soda cans in their neighborhood this summer. Emily collected 42,080 soda cans and Stewart collected 42,800 soda cans. What is the difference between these two numbers?

- A. Both numbers use the same digits
- B. Both numbers are in the ten thousands place
- C. Emily's has a 0 value in the hundreds place; Stewart has 8 groups of one hundred

4. Martha and Stewart are collecting soda cans in their neighborhood. So far, Martha has collected 1,115 soda cans, and Stewart has collected 1,266. Which number written in expanded form represents how many cans they collected together?

- A. $2,000 + 300 + 8 + 1$
- B. Two thousand three hundred eighty-one
- C. $2,000 + 300 + 80 + 1$