

Identifying the Position of Adjectives Part 3

Identify whether the underlined adjective is in attributive or predicative position.

1. Dan saved a playful puppy from the pound.

- attributive
- predicative

2. The nice librarian gave me a novel.

- attributive
- predicative

3. The happy boy laughed out loud.

- attributive
- predicative

4. The funny comedian told many jokes.

- attributive
- predicative

5. He is a great father.

- attributive
- predicative

6. She has a beautiful home.

- attributive
- predicative

7. The pizza is delicious.

- attributive
- predicative

8. Look at the gorgeous dress in the window.

- attributive
- predicative

9. The ballet dancer is graceful.

- attributive
- predicative

10. The sticky taffy got caught on my fingers.

- attributive
- predicative

11. The gymnast is athletic.

- attributive
- predicative

12. The slimy worm wiggled in the dirt.

- attributive
- predicative

13. The roses smell delightful.

- attributive
- predicative

14. The bright rainbow rested in the sky.

- attributive
- predicative

15. The eggs were stinky.

- attributive
- predicative