

Choosing a Sentence with Antonym of the Given Word Part 1

---

Choose a sentence that uses an antonym of the underlined word.

1. Jane built a new house.

- Jane destroyed a new house.
- Jane decorated a new house.
- Jane bought a new house.

2. Tom gathered some wood for the campfire.

- Tom scattered some wood for the campfire.
- Tom burned some wood for the campfire.
- Tom soaked some wood for the campfire.

3. Fido was a naughty dog.

- Fido was a mean dog.
- Fido was a nice dog.
- Fido was a lazy dog.

4. The medicine tasted awful.

- The medicine tasted great.
- The medicine tasted terrible.
- The medicine tasted bitter.

5. Some people eat raw fish.

- Some people eat slimy fish.
- Some people eat cold fish.
- Some people eat cooked fish.

6. Paul felt a lot of pride.

- Paul felt a lot of happiness.
- Paul felt a lot of shame.
- Paul felt a lot of joy.

7. What will the future bring?

- What will the mailman bring?
- What will the days to come bring?
- What will the past bring?

8. You can't deny what you've done!

- You can't change what you've done!
- You can't hide what you've done!
- You can't admit what you've done!

9. Zane is careless.

- Zane is careful.
- Zane is unaware.
- Zane is clumsy.

10. Matthew is a pleasant person.

- Matthew is an unpleasant person.
- Matthew is a nice person.
- Matthew is an easygoing person.