

Choosing a Sentence with Synonym of the Given Word Part 1

---

Choose a sentence that uses a synonym of the underlined word.

1. The phone call turned out to be a prank.

- The phone call turned out to be a trick.
- The phone call turned out to be a salesman.
- The phone call turned out to be a wrong number.

2. He yearned to return to his hometown after so many years away.

- He refused to return to his hometown after so many years away.
- He wanted to return to his hometown after so many years away.
- He decided to return to his hometown after so many years away.

3. The bird built its nest on a high limb.

- The bird built its nest on a high branch.
- The bird built its nest on a high cliff.
- The bird built its nest on a high mountain.

4. I forgot my baseball mitt.

- I forgot my baseball team.
- I forgot my baseball hat.
- I forgot my baseball glove.

5. The dog's paw was caught in a rabbit trap.

- The dog's foot was caught in a rabbit trap.
- The dog's tail was caught in a rabbit trap.
- The dog's snout was caught in a rabbit trap.

6. I asked my father to loan me ten dollars.

- I asked my father to charge me ten dollars.
- I asked my father to lend me ten dollars.
- I asked my father to deny me ten dollars.

7. The teacher ignored our plea for less homework.

- The teacher ignored our demands for less homework.
- The teacher ignored our conditions for less homework.
- The teacher ignored our request for less homework.

8. The laundry basket is not rigid enough to sit on.

- The laundry basket is not tall enough to sit on.
- The laundry basket is not soft enough to sit on.
- The laundry basket is not stiff enough to sit on.