

Choosing a Sentence with Synonym of the Given Word Part 2

Choose a sentence that uses a synonym of the underlined word.

1. Although his clothes were shabby, he had a kind face.

- Although his clothes were new, he had a kind face.
- Although his clothes were stylish, he had a kind face.
- Although his clothes were worn, he had a kind face.

2. I have grown weary of social media sites.

- I have grown puzzled by social media sites.
- I have grown tired of social media sites.
- I have grown eager for social media sites.

3. Although they lost, the team made a valiant effort.

- Although they lost, the team made a half-hearted effort.
- Although they lost, the team made a gallant effort.
- Although they lost, the team made a futile effort.

4. All during the Great Depression, Americans endured hardships.

- All during the Great Depression, Americans endured fun.
- All during the Great Depression, Americans endured baldness.
- All during the Great Depression, Americans endured difficulties.

5. The teacher said she would permit us to use our notes on the test!

- The teacher said she would allow us to use our notes on the test!
- The teacher said she would refuse to let us use our notes on the test!
- The teacher said she would stop us from using our notes on the test!

6. They held a charity concert to benefit the sick musician.

- They held a charity concert to hurt the sick musician.
- They held a charity concert to help the sick musician.
- They held a charity concert to humiliate the sick musician.

7. Don't touch that! It's very fragile!

- Don't touch that! It's very sturdy!
- Don't touch that! It's very stupid!
- Don't touch that! It's very delicate!

8. We peered into the cabin through the dusty window.

- We broke into the cabin through the dusty window.
- We climbed into the cabin through the dusty window.
- We looked into the cabin through the dusty window.

9. We decided to break our routine and go out for Chinese food.

- We decided to break our variety and go out for Chinese food.
- We decided to break our bankbook and go out for Chinese food.
- We decided to break our pattern and go out for Chinese food.

10. I found a wide variety of wildflowers growing out in the meadow.

- I found a wide variety of wildflowers growing out in the river.
- I found a wide variety of wildflowers growing out in the sand.
- I found a wide variety of wildflowers growing out in the field.