

Choosing a Synonym for the Given Word Part 2

---

Choose a word that is the synonym of the underlined word.

1. Newborn deer are usually awkward.

- fast
- clumsy
- graceful
- beautiful

2. Above the river were jagged cliffs.

- low
- boring
- craggy
- smooth

3. To make salad dressing, blend oil and vinegar with mustard.

- observe
- purchase
- separate
- combine

4. Tony's cold was very severe, and he had a high fever.

- serious
- noisy
- quiet
- mild

5. Seeing that movie really inspired me to become a teacher.

- discouraged
- caused
- stopped
- listen

6. Find the sturdiest branches you can when building a lean-to.

- bendiest
- thinnest
- weakest
- strongest

7. My first attempt at baking a cake was a disaster.

- party
- victory
- success
- catastrophe

8. We go to the movies frequently.

- sometimes
- seldom
- never
- often

9. My mother always asks me to be attentive.

- sad
- happy
- worried
- observant

10. Jose was queasy the whole time we were on the boat.

- fine
- happy
- sleepy
- nauseous

11. My father had a peculiar friend named "Ringo."

- unusual
- sneaky
- boring
- dull

12. Marianne's house was adjacent to mine, so we could talk over the fence in our backyards.

- divided
- separate
- faraway
- neighboring

13. Even though he had been driving for hours, Gary stayed alert.

- perfect
- fragrant
- active
- old

14. Mrs. Rittenhouse's generosity was legendary.

- greed
- kindness
- stinginess
- selfishness

15. Once, trilobites were plentiful, and covered the ocean floor.

- rare
- strange
- abundant
- endangered