

Choosing an Antonym for the Given Word Part 2

Choose a word that is the antonym of the underlined word.

1. You must learn basic math before you can start on fractions.

- simple
- primary
- enjoyable
- unimportant

2. The package I received was marked fragile.

- breakable
- durable
- feeble
- frail

3. Our dog is very destructive if he doesn't get enough exercise.

- damaging
- beneficial
- harmful
- ruinous

4. The universe is vast, with countless galaxies.

- huge
- small
- great
- boundless

5. The coach said the touchdown pass I threw was outstanding.

- distinguished
- typical
- impressive
- exceptional

6. I was eager to go to the mountains for our vacation.

- keen
- hungry
- impatient
- uninterested

7. We live on the surface of the earth.

- interior
- exterior
- covering
- top layer

8. A gymnast must be extremely flexible.

- limber
- elastic
- bendable
- unbending

9. The plumber unclogged our drain with ease.

- serenity
- difficulty
- calmness
- happiness

10. Mrs Meyers said that the whole class had done outstanding work on their projects.

- distinguished
- typical
- impressive
- exceptional

11. The teacher said we had to use appropriate language.

- proper
- correct
- applicable
- unsuitable

12. Our cat was behaving in a peculiar way.

- normal
- unusual
- strange
- extraordinary

13. Most wild animals don't do very well in captivity.

- jail
- prison
- freedom
- confinement

14. The effects of erosion can be very destructive to beaches.

- beneficial
- damaging
- harmful
- ruinous

15. Many died when the boat sank in a tragic accident.

- harmless
- disastrous
- dreadful
- fatal