

Choosing an Antonym for the Given Word Part 1

---

Choose a word that is the antonym of the underlined word.

1. John was happy when his team won the soccer game.

- sad
- glad
- pleased
- cheerful

2. Susan was filled with glee when she saw she'd made the honor roll.

- joy
- cheer
- sadness
- happiness

3. My brother was furious when he saw that I'd broken his toy.

- mad
- angry
- happy
- fuming

4. I was excited to collect a mammoth pile of candy on Halloween.

- big
- tiny
- huge
- large

5. With the light bulb burned out, the room was very dim.

- dark
- bright
- badly lit
- shadowy

6. We'll be lucky if the weather is mild on the day of the big game.

- calm
- gentle
- severe
- moderate

7. The doctor gave me a potent medicine, and I felt better right away.

- weak
- strong
- serious
- effective

8. I was frustrated that I was still awake at 3 in the morning.

- alert
- asleep
- watchful
- conscious

9. No one has cleaned this house for years—it's very dingy.

- nasty
- dirty
- clean
- cluttered

10. The fresh bread was soft and delicious.

- new
- stale
- tasty
- recent

11. The detective will try to expose new facts to solve the case.

- show
- reveal
- uncover
- conceal

12. Carpenters always start with wood that's as straight as possible.

- solid
- direct
- simple
- curved

13. Before the trip, we had to purchase a new car.

- buy
- use
- sell
- drive