

Identifying the Correctly Capitalized Sentence Part 2

---

Identify the correctly written sentence.

1.  Do you clean your room on new year's day?
 Do you clean your room on New Year's Day?

2.  I hope it snows on Christmas Eve!
 I hope it snows on christmas eve!

3.  Will we have a class party for easter?
 Will we have a class party Easter?

4.  We will be out of school on president's day.
 We will be out of school on President's Day.

5.  For Halloween, you should dress up as a unicorn.
 For halloween, you should dress up as a unicorn.

6.  Washington, D.C. celebrates the end of slavery on emancipation day each year.
 Washington, D.C. celebrates the end of slavery on Emancipation Day each year.

7.  I am making a card for my dad for father's day.
 I am making a card for my dad for Father's Day.

8.  I bought some flowers for Mother's Day.
 I bought some flowers for mother's day.

9.  Let's go swimming on memorial day.
 Let's go swimming on Memorial Day.
10.  We are volunteering at the church on Martin Luther King Day.
 We are volunteering at the church on martin luther king day.
11.  My grandmother does not eat meat on Good Friday.
 My grandmother does not eat meat on good friday.
12.  We are having a cookout on Labor Day.
 We are having a cookout on labor day.
13.  We are going to learn about explorers on columbus day.
 We are going to learn about explorers on Columbus Day.
14.  Adults get to vote for a new president every four years on Election Day.
 Adults get to vote for a new president every four years on election day.
15.  For Christmas, I am hoping to get a new bike.
 For christmas, I am hoping to get a new bike.