

Combining sentences with Correlative Conjunctions

Join and rewrite the two sentences using the given pair of correlative conjunction.

1. We will go on a field trip. We will go in July and August. (both/and)

2. Trish is not playing the drums. She is playing the trombone. (not/but)

3. The sky is dark. The sky is cloudy. (both/and)

4. Tracy broke her arm. Tracy broke her leg. (both/and)

5. We do not eat in the library. We do not eat in the office. (neither/nor)

6. I want the steak. I want the fish. (both/and)

7. She does not want a kitten. She would rather have a puppy. (rather/than)

8. My dog does no tricks. My dog plays fetch. (not/but)

9. I cannot fit in the shirt. I cannot fit in the pants. (neither/nor)

10. California has beautiful beaches. Hawaii has beautiful beaches. (both/and)

11. You can use a raincoat. You can use an umbrella. (either/or)

12. She would rather wear sunscreen. She does not want to get a sunburn. (rather/than)

13. Natasha is funny. Natasha is witty. (both/and)

14. Nick does not like exercise. He likes jogging. (not/but)

15. My mother is a teacher. My father is a teacher. (both/and)