

Identifying Conjunctions in a Sentence Part 1

Circle the conjunction in the sentence.

1. Brad likes pop and rap music.
2. Sophie is smart yet lazy.
3. Do you want cake or pie?
4. Darren likes baseball, for it is fun.
5. Clara got a B, and Ana got an A.
6. We cannot skate or bike here.
7. Greg likes potato chips and pretzels.
8. I want to play soccer or baseball.
9. All of the kittens, but the yellow one ate.
10. Do you like pie or cake?
11. Veronica likes math and science.

12. The team worked together, so they won.

13. Neither James nor Steve had been on a plane.

14. I can draw, since my brother taught me.

15. You can play video games if you clean your room.