

Using the Correct Homonym to Complete Two Sentences Part 2

Choose the correct homonym to complete the two sentences.

1. What is your _____?

The president is going to _____ the country tonight.

- speak
- address
- memory
- name

2. A bee stung me on the _____.

The soldiers have to _____ themselves before going into battle.

- arm
- leg
- protect
- hurt

3. The bear hibernates in the _____ during winter.

We saw the building _____ in after the explosion.

- forest
- blow
- fall
- cave

4. The tennis instructor taught us how to _____ the ball.
The waiter will _____ your table soon.

- hit
- help
- find
- serve

5. If you keep showing up to work late, we will have to _____ you.
A huge forest _____ broke out in California.

- disaster
- quit
- fire
- stop

6. In the cemetery, we saw an old _____ with the name of a Civil War soldier.
The woman needs an operation right away because her illness is very _____.

- stone
- grave
- situation
- injury

7. Meghan used a hammer and a _____ to hang the picture.
You are going to _____ the dance performance!

- nail
- beat
- tool
- wire

8. The family enjoys eating dinner on the _____.
We need a _____ of cards to play this game.

- stack
- patio
- deck
- box

9. There is fresh lemonade in the _____.
The _____ threw the ball for a strike.

- player
- glass
- pitcher
- refrigerator

10. My sister has her own _____ for softball.
A _____ lives in the roof of the garage.

- ball
- bird
- glove
- bat

11. My grandparents have a _____ in their backyard.
Martin does not feel _____ today.

- good
- vine
- well
- garden

12. Step on the _____ to check your weight.
The spider is going to _____ the wall.

- climb
- spot
- crawl
- scale

13. Does your father wear a _____ to work?
Does this hair color _____ me well?

- tie
- suit
- shirt
- look

14. We need to _____ up the place with new paint.
The _____ tree has grown very big.

- spruce
- oak
- change
- fix

15. We saw a polar _____ at the zoo.
This winter weather is hard to _____.

- animal
- bear
- handle
- ice