

Identifying Compound Nouns Part 2

Circle the compound noun given in the sentence.

1. At the store, we bought a six-pack of drinks.
2. Could we have some ice cream for dessert?
3. Dad parked his truck in the driveway.
4. I think there will be a full moon tonight.
5. My aunt is my mother's sister-in-law.
6. The president is often called the commander-in-chief.
7. This weekend, I am going to my friend Jeff's house.
8. My friend's house is in the cul-de-sac.
9. I dropped my bookmark on the floor in the cafeteria.
10. Will we have applesauce with our lunch today?
11. Why do politicians always talk nicely about the middle class?

12. I would really like to eat a cheeseburger right now.
13. You should not eat in the living room because you might spill.
14. I need to mail a letter at the post office.
15. This morning, I saw a rainbow arching over the school.