

Identifying Compound Nouns Part 1

Circle the compound noun given in the sentence.

1. My homework is all done.
2. Grandmother is coming to visit.
3. The ride on the airplane was very rough.
4. He has put the papers in his briefcase.
5. We have a very friendly neighborhood.
6. My little sister can count to ninety-nine.
7. The airport was very crowded with travelers.
8. Everywhere in town was closed yesterday.
9. The soldier was homesick when he talked to his family on the phone.
10. The student did not understand how to do the math problem.
11. We worked on the background decorations for the play.

12. The fireplace warmed the whole room.

13. We knew the story was make-believe when the horse started talking.

14. What did you eat for breakfast?

15. The plan for mom's birthday seems perfect.