

Identifying Noncount and Count Nouns

Decide whether the noun in bold is a count or noncount noun.

1. The accident involved three vehicles.

- count noun
 noncount noun

2. He had blood on his shirt.

- count noun
 noncount noun

3. The weather was hot all week.

- count noun
 noncount noun

4. The train pulled into the station.

- count noun
 noncount noun

5. The heat made me feel sick.

- count noun
- noncount noun

6. I could see the smoke rising from the chimney.

- count noun
- noncount noun

7. He didn't see the lightning until it was too late.

- count noun
- noncount noun

8. Will you help me move the furniture?

- count noun
- noncount noun

9. We were stopped by the deputy.

- count noun
- noncount noun

10. The tricycle was missing a wheel.

- count noun
- noncount noun

11. Two cows were a different color from the others.

- count noun
- noncount noun

12. His braces were made of metal.

- count noun
- noncount noun

13. She forgot to do her homework.

- count noun
- noncount noun

14. The dogs were hungry.

- count noun
- noncount noun

15. What time is it?

- count noun
- noncount noun