

Identifying Count and Noncount Nouns Part 1

---

Decide whether the noun in bold is a count or a noncount noun.

1. The toddler stacked six blocks.

- count noun
 noncount noun

2. The shoes are in the closet.

- count noun
 noncount noun

3. The ocean is full of living creatures.

- count noun
 noncount noun

4. They played a game of hockey.

- count noun
 noncount noun

5. Leslie does not eat beef.

- count noun
- noncount noun

6. We found some twigs at the park.

- count noun
- noncount noun

7. We need three cups of flour for this recipe.

- count noun
- noncount noun

8. She filled the tires with air.

- count noun
- noncount noun

9. I set the plates on the table.

- count noun
- noncount noun

10. There are seven days in a week.

- count noun
- noncount noun

11. The burning building was filled with smoke.

- count noun
- noncount noun

12. There are twenty pages in this book.

- count noun
- noncount noun

13. George has four puppies for sale.

- count noun
- noncount noun

14. Would you like a glass of milk?

- count noun
- noncount noun

15. The roof was covered in snow.

- count noun
- noncount noun