

Identifying Relative Pronouns

Circle the relative pronoun in the sentence.

1. The car that my grandfather gave me for my birthday is bright green.
2. Where did you get the shoes that you wore with your red dress?
3. Cheetahs, which are the fastest land animals, are found mostly in Africa.
4. I want to find a job that challenges me.
5. Robert Frost, who was a poet, wrote that famous poem "The Road Not Taken."
6. The doctor, who saved the little girl's life, is standing by the door.
7. The kite, which is my favorite toy, was in the car.
8. Jake, whose backpack is orange, got to class just before the bell rang.
9. My cousins, from whom I learned a lot, are returning to France next week.
10. We always like people who speak truth.
11. She has gone to Zurich, which is her birthplace.

12. The person whose shoes are by the door has made my dad angry.

13. I should take this back to Mary, from whose desk it came.

14. The light, which is flashing brightly, is giving me a headache.

15. The puppy that got hit by a car is expected to make a full recovery.