

Identifying the Indirect Object

Circle the indirect object in the sentence.

1. I read my brother a story every night.
2. Marsha bought me lunch yesterday, so today I returned the favor.
3. The blaring music at the concert gave me a terrible headache.

Circle the indirect object in the sentence.

4. The tour guide showed the visitors the garden outside the building.
5. The Civic Association awarded Myra a scholarship.

Circle the indirect object in the sentence.

6. Dr. Marshall offered his neighbors his tickets to the play, since he could not use them .
7. The chef cooked himself a delicious dinner.
8. My parents gave my sister a new car when she graduated from college.
9. The dog brought his master a tennis ball.

10. The selfless woman gave the homeless person her coat.

11. The principal gave the students certificates for perfect attendance.

Circle the indirect object in the sentence.

12. Grandpa loved to tell us stories about his childhood.

Circle the indirect object in the sentence.

13. Prudence gave Samantha a book of poetry on her birthday.

14. Mrs. Johnson showed her class the new books in the school library.

15. My mother mailed my sister a postcard from Italy.