

Combining Two Simple Sentences to Form a Compound Sentence (Answer Sheet)

---

1. I like turtles, but cats are my favorite animals.
2. It was very hot outside, so the ice cream melted quickly.
3. The bus pulled up in front of the house, so Alice ran out.
4. They took a boat ride, and they went fishing.
5. I have to eat all my dinner, so I can have dessert.
6. Joe likes video games, but he doesn't like computers.
7. Laura likes to swim, and she likes to hike.
8. Lucy will go to sleep, or she will be tired in the morning.
9. Beth likes to read books, and she likes to write stories.
10. Steven studied hard, so he will pass the test.
11. The team won the game, and they hope to win the tournament.
12. Deb likes to sing, but she doesn't like to sing in front of people.
13. Mr. Turbo likes to drive fast, but he should be careful.
14. Harry bought a tent and a sleeping bag.
15. The mime made a silly face, and the kids laughed.