

Determining the Position of the Predicate Part 2

---

Fill in the blank with the correct answer.

1. Sarah goes to school with me.

In this sentence, the predicate comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

2. There is a dog in the yard.

In this sentence, the verb "is" comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

3. Under the water swam the dolphin.

Here, the verb comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

4. Did you do the homework?

In this sentence, a part of the predicate comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

5. Here comes Mrs. Johnson.

Here, the verb comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

6. Is Marcus here?

In this sentence, the verb comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

7. Into the mud puddle went the baby.

In this sentence, the verb comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

8. Was Joan your friend?

In this sentence, a part of the predicate comes _____ (before / after) the subject.

9. The predicate often comes before the subject when sentences begin with _____ (here / you).
10. In a sentence with a compound subject, the predicate comes _____ (after / before) the subject.
11. A sentence beginning with "there" has a predicate that comes before the _____ (noun / verb).
12. In sentences that have an "understood you," the predicate comes _____ (before / after) the subject.
13. Prepositional phrases can often cause the predicate to come _____ (before / after) the subject.
14. In a sentence with a compound predicate, the predicate comes _____ (before / after) the subject.
15. If asking a question, the verb comes before the _____ (subject / pronoun).