

Determining the Position of the Subject Part 2

1. In the case of questions, the subject comes _____ the verb. (before/after)

2. “Are you going to school today?”

Here, the subject comes _____ the predicate. (before/after)

3. “Here are the crackers.”

Here, the subject comes _____ the verb. (before/after)

4. In the case of sentences that begin with one or more _____, the subject often comes after the verb. (pronouns/ prepositional phrases)

5. “The fish swam across the lake.”

Here, the subject comes _____ the verb. (before/after)

6. “Is that Steve?”

Here, the subject _____ comes after the verb is. (Steve/that)

7. “There were a few people in the room.”

Here, the subject comes _____ the verb. (after/before)

8. “Across the lake swam the fish.”

Here, the subject comes _____ the verb. (before/after)

9. Usually, the _____ comes at the beginning of a sentence.
(subject/predicate)

10. In the case of sentences that begin with the words _____, the subject comes after the verb. (here and there/this and that)