

Identifying Sentences That Use Comma Correctly Part 2

Which sentence uses the comma correctly?

1. My birthday is on April 2, 2008.
 My birthday is on, April 2 2008.
2. The pizza was cheesy gooey, and delicious!
 The pizza was cheesy, gooey, and delicious!
3. America's birthday is July, 4 1776.
 America's birthday is July 4, 1776.
4. My parents got married on June 5, 2003.
 My parents got married on June, 5, 2003.
5. School starts on, August 10 2015.
 School starts on August 10, 2015.
6. Please put cheese tomatoes, and pickles on my sandwich.
 Please put cheese, tomatoes, and pickles on my sandwich.
7. My best friend is smart kind, and funny.
 My best friend is smart, kind, and funny.
8. My baby sister Karen was born on January 3, 2014.
 My baby sister Karen was born on January, 3 2014.

9. To make the cookies, we need flour, sugar, and milk.
 To make the cookies, we need, flour, sugar and milk.
10. My teacher Mrs. Harris is patient helpful, and kind.
 My teacher Mrs. Harris is patient, helpful, and kind.
11. At the store, we bought eggs milk, and butter.
 At the store, we bought eggs, milk, and butter.
12. Make sure you bring a glove, bat, and ball to practice.
 Make sure you bring a, glove, bat and ball to practice.
13. For the art project, we need paper paint and glitter.
 For the art project, we need paper, paint, and glitter.
14. The little kitten was, playful, furry and energetic.
 The little kitten was playful, furry, and energetic.
15. After practice, I was dirty tired, and hungry.
 After practice, I was dirty, tired, and hungry.