

Identifying Group of Words as a Run-on or a Sentence Part 2

What is this?

1. I am not good at writing I need help with my essay.

- a sentence
 a run-on

2. I am confused, and I do not know the answer to your question.

- a sentence
 a run-on

3. I am very tired I will go to bed now.

- a sentence
 a run-on

4. Eating too many sweets is bad for you eat vegetables instead.

- a sentence
 a run-on

5. Can you help me with this math problem, I don't understand how to get the answer.

a sentence

a run-on

6. Since it is raining outside, we are not able to have recess.

a sentence

a run-on

7. For breakfast, I would like to have a plate full of pancakes with syrup and bacon on the side.

a sentence

a run-on

8. We watched a very funny movie this weekend with my aunt and uncle from California.

a sentence

a run-on

9. Because Joseph's birthday is today, our class will have cupcakes after lunch.

a sentence

a run-on

10. I like to go horseback riding in the summers when I visit my grandparents' farm.

a sentence

a run-on

11. I am not sure why Mrs. Sams has asked us to bring a shoebox to class tomorrow, but we will

a sentence

a run-on

12. My friend Amelia is the best math student in our entire class.

a sentence

a run-on

13. After we drive to the beach, let's spend some time looking for crabs on the sand.

a sentence

a run-on

14. I like visiting the zoo, the animals are very interesting.

a sentence

a run-on

15. I want to take swimming lessons because I am going to join the swim team.

a sentence

a run-on