

Identifying the Best Way to Combine Simple Sentences to Form a Compound Sentence

---

Identify the best way to combine the two simple sentences into a compound sentence.

1. Dan loves soccer. Anna loves soccer.

- Dan loves soccer and Anna loves soccer.
- Dan and Anna loves soccer.
- Dan and Anna love soccer.

2. Mandy likes bananas. Mandy does not like apples.

- Mandy likes bananas and apples.
- Mandy likes bananas, but she doesn't like apples.
- Mandy like bananas, but she likes apples.

3. The ice cream is cold. The ice cream is delicious.

- The ice cream is cold and it is delicious.
- The ice cream is cold or delicious.
- The ice cream and cold is delicious.

4. I have a headache. I have a bad cough.

- I have a headache or a bad cough.
- I have a headache but I have a bad cough.
- I have a headache and I have a bad cough.

5. I went to the beach. I built a sandcastle.

- I went to the beach or I built a sandcastle.
- I went to the beach and I built a sandcastle.
- I went to the beach but I built a sandcastle.

6. Will likes cake. Andrew likes cake.

- Will and Andrew like cake.
- Will and Andrew likes cake.
- Will like cake and Andrew like cake.

7. School is fun. School is exciting.

- School is fun or school is exciting.
- School is fun and it is exciting.
- School is fun but exciting.

8. I'm afraid of bats. I'm not afraid of spiders.

- I'm afraid of bats, but I'm not afraid of spiders.
- I'm afraid of bats, and I'm not afraid of spiders.
- I'm afraid of bats, or I'm not afraid of spiders.

9. Our dog got really muddy. We gave him a bath.

- Our dog got really muddy or we gave him a bath.
- Our dog got really muddy and we give him a bath.
- Our dog got really muddy, so we gave him a bath.

10. We lost the game. We still had a lot of fun.

- We lost the game, but we still had a lot of fun.
- We lost the game, or we still had a lot of fun.
- We lost the game, so we still had a lot of fun.

11. I wanted to eat candy. I decided to eat an apple instead.

- I wanted to eat candy, but I decided to eat an apple instead.
- I wanted to eat candy, and I decided to eat an apple instead.
- I wanted to eat candy, or I decided to eat an apple instead.

12. We got lost. My dad found a map in the car.

- We got lost, and my dad found a map in the car.
- We got lost, but my dad found a map in the car.
- We got lost, or my dad found a map in the car.

13. Would you like to go to a concert? Would you rather stay at home?

- Would you like to go to a concert, and would you rather stay at home?
- Would you like to go to a concert, yet would you rather stay at home?
- Would you like to go to a concert, or would you rather stay at home?

14. Our car broke down. We had to walk to the store.

- Our car broke down, so we had to walk to the store.
- Our car broke down, but we had to walk to the store.
- Our car broke down, for we had to walk to the store.

15. Anna loves summer camp. She misses her family.

- Anna loves summer camp, or she misses her family.
- Anna loves summer camp, and she misses her family.
- Anna loves summer camp, but she misses her family.