

Identifying the Nature of Noun in Bold

---

Identify the type of noun in bold.

1. The cats' toys got stuck under the bed.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

2. The horses' riders rode gracefully around the racetrack.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

3. The hens' eggs were collected each morning.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

4. The students' teacher greeted them at the door.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

5. The dogs' owner took them for a walk in the park.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

6. The kids' parents waited at the bus stop after school.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

7. The trees' branches broke off in the windstorm.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

8. The pencils' leads and erasers were all worn down.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

9. The books' covers show the titles clearly.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

10. The boy's father came looking for him at the park.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

11. The girl's sister made her lunch.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

12. Joe's baseball team won the game.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

13. The movie's ending was very confusing.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

14. The car's tires screeched to a halt.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

15. The baby's cries woke up her mother.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun