

Identifying the Nature of the Noun in a Sentence

---

What is the word in bold?

1. Kevin's papers just fell all over the floor.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

2. Make sure you don't go into the boys' restroom if you are a girl.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

3. Can you tell me the milk's expiration date?

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

4. The dogs' water bowl is not big enough for both of them.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

5. Do you have to sit at the children's table at Thanksgiving?

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

6. The girls' basketball team wears red jerseys.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

7. The book's pages are stained.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

8. The mice's nest was under the bushes.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

9. My mom's hair is a pretty shade of red.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

10. Students cannot go into the teachers' lounge.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

11. My friend's arm was broken during recess.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

12. Can you help me find the women's pajamas?

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

13. All of the stores' Christmas lights were twinkling brightly.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

14. The geese's wings flapped slowly as the birds formed a V to fly away.

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun

15. Did you see the animals' footprints in the snow?

- a singular possessive noun
- a plural possessive noun
- a singular noun