

Identifying the Simple Subject Part 4

Circle the simple subject in the sentence.

1. The small, friendly cat licked my hand.
2. A fresh, new sapling showed spring was near.
3. The white, regal-looking tiger came up to the fence.
4. The incredibly evil stepsister cast a mean spell.
5. My silly and crazy little brother makes me laugh.
6. The kind old man held open the door for me.
7. My fabulous sisters have the best clothes.
8. The black and white striped kitten needed a new home.
9. My nice and loving parents allowed me to go to the dance.
10. The bright and sunny winter day was unexpected.
11. The long, smooth hill is good for sledding.

12. The big, funny clown did some tricks.

13. The large comfy blanket made me very warm.

14. The trendy new phone was just what he wanted.

15. A brown wicker basket holds the berries.