

Identifying the Simple Subject Part 3

Circle the simple subject in the sentence.

1. The long, windy, hilly road led to nowhere.
2. The girls rode the bus to school.
3. The girl caught a butterfly.
4. The weak old man walked to the park.

The old black polka dot box was under the table.

5. Here, the simple subject is:

- table
- box
- polka dot
- old black polka dot box

A funny and kind lady spoke to me today.

6. Here, the simple subject is:

- spoke
- lady
- me
- funny and kind lady

Running down the court, the basketball player was trying to score.

7. Here, the simple subject is:

- court
- basketball player
- player
- the basketball player

I have bought a red and a pink rose.

8. Here, the simple subject is:

- I
- have
- rose
- a red and a pink rose

The box full of toys belongs to Joseph.

9. Here, the simple subject is:

- box
- toys
- belongs
- Joseph

Florence eats many strawberries.

10. Here, Florence is a _____ (simple/compound) subject.

She ate all the cake.

11. Here, she is a _____ (simple/compound) subject.

The small blonde girl walked into the classroom.

12. Here, the simple subject is:

- blonde
- girl
- walked
- the small blonde girl

A slimy green slug crawled across the ground.

13. Here, the simple subject is:

- slimy
- slug
- crawled
- a slimy green slug

Circle the simple subject in the sentence.

14. Across the pond many people are fishing.