

Identifying the Simple Subject Part 1

Circle the simple subject in the sentence.

1. The small boy looked lost in the store.
2. That crinkled, torn paper is my homework.
3. My grandmother's striped cat likes to eat bugs.
4. My entire family will go to the beach next week.
5. Our loud, active class got quiet when the principal walked in.
6. The soccer team has won seven games this season.
7. Mr. Harris' green chair is where he sits to read stories to us.
8. My green, fuzzy blanket is missing!
9. The movie tickets cost $8.00 each.
10. The white and black purse belongs to Mrs. Jones.
11. Those smelly blue shoes are my brother's.

12. The water trickling down the mountain is going into a river.

13. The bird sitting on that tree branch has a nest full of babies.

14. Homework in math is not fun at all!

15. The books on that shelf belong to Aunt Karen.