

Identifying a Helping Verb as Primary or Modal Verb

---

Is the helping verb in bold a primary helping verb or a modal verb?

1. I do assist the cafeteria staff.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

2. He does not underline key words.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

3. Does she have a story chart?

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

4. Did you use a checklist for your writing?

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

5. I did make my own tabs for the binder.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

6. She has gone on the thrilling ride numerous times.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

7. I have not heard whether the student council meeting is rescheduled.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

8. Have you got a moment?

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

9. I had never visited the high school before today.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

10. Thomas is calculating volume for math.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

11. You had seen the sequel to the movie before.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

12. Emma is crafting a story.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

13. I am typing my current events report.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

14. I am learning about the solar system.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

15. They are invited to the induction ceremony.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb