

Identifying the Helping Verb as Primary Helping Verb or Modal Verb

Is the helping verb in bold a primary helping verb or a modal verb?

1. I do help my teacher in the classroom.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

2. He does not run quickly.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

3. Does she get a sticker?

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

4. Did you watch a video in science class?

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

5. I did make my own lunch for school.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

6. She has gone back and forth four times looking for her book.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

7. I have not heard whether the trip is canceled.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

8. Have you got the time?

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

9. I had never visited the library before today.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

10. Jane is sleeping.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

11. You had seen the movie before.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

12. Emma is waiting for the bus.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

13. I am waiting for the phone to ring.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

14. I am going to the principal's office.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb

15. They are going to Tennis Club.

- primary helping verb
- modal verb