

Climate

Choose the correct answer.

1. Which of the following climate zones has warm temperatures throughout the year and a great amount of precipitation?

- Temperate
- Tropical

2. The Climate Zone where temperatures are neither very hot nor very cold is called the _____ Climate Zone.

- Tropical
- Temperate

3. Which of the following is the third climate zone in addition to the Tropical and Temperate?

- Polar
- Marine West Coast

4. _____ amounts of precipitation are found at higher elevations.

- Lower
- Higher

5. Which of the following is the main difference between weather and climate?

- Time
- Rainfall

6. Desert nights tend to be very _____.

- hot
- cold

7. Which of the following determines how the Earth's climates are divided into climate zones?

- Average temperature and average rainfall
- How many days in a month it rains

8. At which of the following times are nocturnal creatures active?

- Day
- Night

9. Which of the following is the name for special characteristics that an organism is born with which help it to survive in its natural habitat?

- Adaptations
- Instincts

10. The main source of moisture for precipitation is _____.

- Evaporation from oceans
- Snowfall

11. In a _____ environment there is very little rainfall in a year.

- Swamp
- Desert

12. Climate is defined as the atmospheric conditions in a region over a _____ period of time.

- short
- long

13. The _____ is one of the most extensive swamps in the United States.

- Everglades
- Pantanal

14. _____ occur in places where the ground cannot soak in all the precipitation or water runoff.

Swamps

Ponds

15. In which of the following climate zones is the temperature cold all of the time?

- Polar
- Temperate